

Facing North Jean Hay Opening Fall 2021

Jean Hay, Snow Flows #7 (detail), 1996, encaustic on canvas backed with Masonite.
From the collection of the Thames Art Gallery

Art & Ideas

Hosted via Zoom | Registration required | Space is limited

July 8 @ 7PM

Artist talk with
Susan Dobson

July 15 @ 7PM

Artist talk with
Lee Henderson

July 28 @ 7PM

Enter Astral Island
for Imaginary
Wednesdays

August 5 @ 7PM

Back in Judy's Jungle

JUDITH & NORMAN
ALIX

ART GALLERY

147 Lochiel Street, Sarnia, Ontario N7T 0B4 519-336-8127. Visit jnaag.ca to register or learn more.

MAKE ART KIT

SUMMER 2021 EDITION

June/July* Patchwork

Design your own handmade patch with this kit. Layer colour and shapes, experiment with basic hand embroidery and then wear your creations with pride!

*The same kit will be released in June & July

August/September* En Plein Air

Join Sarnia artist Mary Kilbreath through our videos and take this kit outdoors to create your own landscape painting en plein air.

*The same kit will be released in August & September

Virtual Retreat and Encaustics Workshop for Adults via Zoom

August 4 from 6–8:30PM & August 14 from 1–4PM

Tools and materials included, visit jnaag.ca for cost.

In collaboration with Thames Art Gallery, this two-part workshop is a perfect virtual getaway. Windsor-based artist Lindsay Beaubien will share beginner's techniques and processes for creating encaustic mixed media paintings incorporating elements collected in your journal exploration.